The conduct of these officers is absolutely despicable and unacceptable! They should all be fired immediately and be sentenced to stay in a mental health facility to be educated. Officers like this are a disgrace as well as the departments who tolerate this behavior. It creates a dangerous situation for fellow officers who actually care about the community they live in. So it's not hard to imagine why ...

She was enjoying being a bully and openly admitting it on camera. What a display of absolute lack of professionalism. Elected officials are doing nothing about reforming police because they want to be on good terms with them and don't want to be the one to come and disrupt their little party. Nationwide phenomenon. I will say it again; People should not be paid when they are found to behave like this and their penalties should be severe and swift so as to discourage the perpetuation of it. This is a culture of abuse of power not aimed at a particular person but as to their accountability for their actions in connection with the abuse. They are public servants serving as a public nuisance. I feel sorry for their immediate ...

To handle an elderly person with that much disrespect merits each officer involved immediate termination! We are told to trust the police, but how are we allowed to do so when their actions direct us to protect ourselves from the police?

didn't know what mental state she was in, they should have never taunted her...and to laugh and egg it on and escalate the situation is disgusting!! To top it all off, u can tell it's not a one off situation due to the facts that they are all so comfortable with her actions and laughing along...

This is horrible and those cops, especially the female cop are the most disgusting people I've ever had to look at. So shameful.

Just making sure everyone commenting watched the entire video. She was using an aerosol can and lighter to light and could have caused real problems. The way the female officer handled it, appeared unprofessional, but it wasn't just a person in the bathroom refusing to come out. Please make sure you take the entire video into consideration.

3:30 "This was unnecessary" Then why did you do it? = Abuser logic. their is no logic, just say what ever they feel like in the moment to justify their actions. you know whats worse then a criminal? a criminal who works as a policeman.

I'm an OKLAHOMAN & I'm ashamed of the behavior of this police officer (women especially) I hope she is fired & never allowed to work in law enforcement again. This is not a fair representation of police & the difficult jobs they do, but bc of one or two cops inexcusable behavior & unprofessionalism this why there is such a stigma surrounding the treatment of the mentally ill. Your character is shown ...

This video is ridiculous. All you people should Watch the whole thing. Ladonna was there for 4 hours. The police did try talking with her and tell her to please come out yada yada. I mean she's saying the police are trying to kill her you think she's not going down without a fight? I think whoever has worked
